Description

Award-Winning Architecture

Introducing Ansaya Villas Phuket - where Thai heritage meets modern architectural design for an unforgettable living experience.

Renowned Thai architect Khamron Sutthi has created a masterpiece of intelligent design, incorporating the local climate to provide natural ventilation and cooling.

Choose from two stunning models: Type A, a single-story three-bedroom and three-bathroom modern design (contact us for price list), or Type B, a two-story four-bedroom and three-bathroom modern design (shown here).

Enjoy the following features in your Ansaya Villa:

- Covered parking for 2 cars
- Natural stone swimming pool with a saltwater system
- Built-in western kitchen with German appliances
- 6m high vaulted ceilings
- Insulated double brick wall construction
- Certified IARC roof insulation
- Denmark water supply pump with inverter

With only six villas available, don't wait too long to secure your piece of paradise.

Schedule a private inspection today using the contact form below and experience the Ansaya Villas Phuket lifestyle for yourself.
