Description

Come See This Sea View Surin Phuket Villa for Sale

An innovatively designed sea view pool villa, just steps from Phuket's famed and exclusive Surin Beach.

The villa has spectacular, elevated views of the pristine Surin Beach and the crystal-clear waters of the Andaman sea. This is the closest villa in the Surin Heights estate to the beach; a mere 200m walk to reach the golden, tropical sands of Surin beach.

Construction of this modern-style villa was completed in 2006. The architect, Naga Concepts, created innovative design with high-quality construction. This design incorporates good use of light and space, the blending of internal and external spaces, and the careful positioning of windows to ensure privacy.

This villa has 400 sqm of built area, across four floors. The entrance is on the third floor and this Surin Phuket villa for sale has a two-car garage and paved driveway for a further two cars.

Across the threshold, a small foyer awaits. In front of the light, spacious and open-plan lounge, dining, and kitchen. To the right, stairs up to the roomy master bedroom suite.

The heart of the property is the living area. With a comfortable lounge to one side of this light and airy space, and a more formal dining area sits in front of a high standard fully fitted kitchen with high-end appliances. This is complemented by masses of storage along the external wall.

Floor to ceiling glass sliding windows opens up to the pool and deck with the outside world. Outside a large deck area with sunbeds surrounds a private infinity pool. A traditional Thai sala provides seating and shade. All of which enjoy fantastic sea views, amazing sunsets as well as cooling ocean breezes.

This outdoor space can be enjoyed regardless of weather conditions due to the electrically operated awning that provides both shade and shelter from the elements.

The master bedroom is complete with a four-post bed, a private sea view balcony, and a stunning bathroom with a large white terrazzo bathtub. Beautiful timber floors are laid throughout the large bedroom.

The lower floors consist of three further en-suite bedrooms, although one of which is currently being used as a less formal lounge/tv room. The other two bedrooms have views across to the beach on the front of the house. All have private bathrooms with showers. On this floor is a further laundry/utility/maid's room. Which can of course become secure storage should any buyer consider renting the property.

The property contains everything you need to move in. It comes fully furnished, with contents and equipment.

The estate has in place world-class property management by Knight Frank, with an office on site. All common areas are excellently maintained and managed; from the 24-hour security to the common tropical garden areas.

Come see this luxurious accommodation in excellent condition; with stunning sea and beach views, cool ocean breezes, absolute privacy with extremely easy access to the beach.

Ownership is flexible; currently via BVI structure.
