Description

Chalong Private Pool Villa for Sale

This villa was inspired by the concept of an oriental rural home, this villa combines traditional design with an urban lifestyle and a touch of nature.

Like anything handmade, this development is a product of love and attention to the smallest details. From design works to way of life, Japan defines what it means by "more than meets the eye". Their gratitude towards nature and mankind is beautifully shown through delicate details in all things seemingly simple.

The inside and outside of the house connect and flow seamlessly. No separation is felt entering from the front porch all the way to the backyard. The smooth transition makes the house feel bigger than its interior. Applying the art of Grid & Line to the house design, the arrangement of walls, windows, and doors is given a well-balanced composition and clean look. The concept of 'incomplete beauty' is where perfectionism gives way to a natural, unrefined look.

This Chalong private pool villa for sale can be purchased as leasehold or freehold title.
