Description

Low Cost Housing in Phuket

This newly constructed low-cost housing in Phuket offers an affordable option for families, conveniently located near Boat Avenue Marina and the British International School.

The two-story home features 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, providing ample space for comfortable living. It is a fully detached property with private parking for 2 cars, ensuring convenience for residents.

With a price per square meter just over 31,000 THB, this housing option offers excellent value for money.

The estate will provide additional amenities such as a common pool and fitness center, allowing residents to stay active and enjoy leisure time. A management office will be available on-site to address any concerns or inquiries.

Families with children attending international schools will find this low-cost housing in Phuket particularly appealing due to its proximity to the British International School and other educational institutions.

Please note that the house is sold unfurnished, but a furniture package is available for purchase. The package, priced at 1,600,000 THB, includes everything seen in the showroom photos, providing a convenient option for those looking to furnish their home.

Thai buyers may also have the opportunity to qualify for bank financing, making homeownership more accessible.

Take advantage of this opportunity to own an affordable home in Phuket and enjoy the benefits of comfortable living in a convenient location.
