Description

Foreign freehold condominium

This re-sale condo is nestled among superior shared facilities, including four swimming pools, a fully-equipped fitness club, library, bistro, and health spa that are sure to please.

Receiving a lot of attention for its design and because it's being built by one of the best-known developers in Phuket. Under the concept, "a simple change makes all the difference", this development is designed to give owners a very unique product.

This one-bedroom foreign freehold condominium has a distinct style. It has tall, three-meter high ceilings and large three-meter wide balconies letting natural sunlight drench every room, making every day feel special so you can sleep less and dream more.

Located in a gated community in southern Phuket, where the pace of life is most definitely more laid back and the locale is ideal for all kinds of weekend activities. Just minutes away from Rawai Beach, Ya Nui Beach, and Nai Harn Beach make this unit all the more desirable.

This new style of low-rise condominium blends seamlessly and combines the advantage of a shared public area with tranquility. Using the same quality standards this developer is known for.

Investors looking for opportunities to invest in quality projects with all the benefits, look no further. A visual inspection is highly recommended.
