Description

New Surin Beach Condominium

RHEA by Sansiri presents a thoughtfully designed, low-rise condominium residence crafted for those seeking the perfect blend of relaxed island living and solid investment potential. Developed by Sansiri, Thailand's trusted real estate leader with decades of proven quality and delivery, this project brings resort-inspired living to Phuket's coveted west coast.

Set amidst lush tropical landscaping and inspired by the concept of a “secret lagoon,” RHEA invites you into a serene retreat where natural calm meets modern comfort. Just moments from both Surin Beach and Bang Tao Beach, residents enjoy effortless access to iconic coastline, vibrant lifestyle hubs, beach clubs, cafés, and world-class dining.

The development comprises three low-rise buildings with approximately 295 units, intelligently planned with open layouts and quiet communal spaces. Facilities include a central freeform pool, landscaped gardens, fitness centre, yoga and pet areas, co-working space, sauna, and 24-hour security — all designed for everyday ease and long-term appeal.

Location & Lifestyle

Perfectly positioned between two of Phuket's most desirable beaches, RHEA delivers balance — peaceful residential living with vibrant social scenes, shopping at Boat Avenue and Porto de Phuket, and easy connectivity to the airport and island amenities.

Investment & Ownership

With flexible ownership options and strong rental demand in this community-oriented locale, RHEA appeals to investors and lifestyle buyers alike. Foreign freehold ownership is available under Thai condominium quota regulations, making this an attractive entry into Phuket's property market.

Secure your place in one of Phuket's emerging residential hotspots — Invest with Confidence and experience island living at its finest. Contact us to explore available units and tailored investment opportunities.
