Description

Samsara Sea View Villa for Sale

Experience Unparalleled Luxury at Villa Santisuk – Your Exquisite Retreat in Paradise!

Indulge in the epitome of elegance at Villa Santisuk, a stunning five-bedroom contemporary masterpiece influenced by the captivating allure of Asian design. Nestled atop a private oceanfront estate, this architectural gem commands breathtaking panoramic views of the Andaman Sea, offering an idyllic sanctuary where every moment is imbued with tranquility.

Designed with meticulous attention to detail, Villa Santisuk revolves around its twin-level main living areas, perfectly positioned alongside a magnificent 20-meter long infinity-edge swimming pool. The villa's ingenious layout includes numerous private spaces, allowing guests to gather or find solace in shaded corners or sunlit open areas. Seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living, extensive folding and sliding doors create a harmonious transition from the villa's interior to its surrounding oasis. Luxuriously high ceilings exceeding 3 meters and generously proportioned rooms further enhance the sense of grandeur, providing an abundance of space even in the intimate and private bedroom areas. From the awe-inspiring entrance walkway adorned with water features to the enchanting 'in-water' sala area and cascading waterwalls in the outdoor spa showers, every detail has been thoughtfully curated to evoke serenity and encapsulate the essence of the villa's name, 'Santisuk,' meaning peace.

Perched securely atop the estate, Villa Santisuk welcomes guests with a statement entrance walkway flanked by reflective ponds, setting the stage for an unforgettable arrival experience. Expansive integrated hard surfaces, lush green grass, and inviting pool and deck areas form the central focal point of the villa, offering ample space for entertaining and hosting receptions.

Overlooking this magnificent setting is the villa's signature two-story pavilion, featuring a formal dining area, a cozy lounge space, and a convenient side bar kitchen on the ground floor. The upper level houses an additional living area, all embraced by high-quality anodized aluminum folding sliding windows that open up to reveal breathtaking vistas of the sea and majestic mountains beyond. Cloaked in beautifully maintained wood, the pavilion seamlessly fuses traditional charm with modern sophistication.

The living area pavilion also affords sweeping views of the 20-meter long Indonesian stone infinity pool, complete with a 'floating' sala at the southern end, offering a serene space for massages, reading, or alfresco dining.

Villa Santisuk boasts five expansive sea-view bedrooms, each featuring indoor and outdoor bathrooms and ample closet space to cater to your every need. To the rear side of the main villa level, two large guest bedrooms, 2 and 3, await, boasting high ceilings, wooden floors, and bathrooms complemented by private garden areas with waterfalls and refreshing outdoor showers. On the northern side of the pool level, the master bedroom suite takes center stage. Its strategic position ensures utmost privacy, while the three-sided floor-to-ceiling folding/sliding windows maximize the surrounding hills and sea views. This magnificent suite offers abundant space, lofty ceilings, an integrated work desk behind the bed, and both indoor and outdoor shower facilities.

Descending down a stairway, you'll discover bedrooms 4 and 5, each providing mesmerizing sea views and spacious terraces/balconies. Bedroom 5 boasts an ocean-view bath in addition to a shower. Behind bedroom 4, a home theatre/TV room awaits, accompanied by an additional storage room.

At the rear of the main living level, stairs lead down to a spacious kitchen and pantry, ensuring every culinary desire is met. Further stairs guide you to a well-lit and airy gym, followed by two maids' rooms, offering additional convenience for your stay.

A walkway at the rear of the villa leads to a mountain-facing sala, providing a serene retreat where guests can unwind, read, and revel in relaxation away from the main villa.

Completed around 2005 and meticulously maintained, Villa Santisuk underwent a redecoration in 2022, ensuring it exudes contemporary elegance and sophistication.

Situated within the secure and well-maintained Samsara estate, Villa Santisuk is surrounded by a community of other luxurious properties. Guests have convenient beach access down from the headland to either Blue Coral Beach below the Naka Hotel or to the beach in front of the Tavorn Hotel on the eastern side of the headland. The vibrant destinations of Patong and Kamala are only a short 10-minute drive away, offering an array of entertainment, dining, and shopping experiences.

Priced at $7.4M USD fully furnished.

Escape to Villa Santisuk and immerse yourself in a world of unrivaled luxury, serenity, and natural beauty. Your extraordinary Phuket getaway awaits!
