Description

Private Residential Villas in Health Resort Community in Phuket

Description

Discover an extraordinary lifestyle at Tri Vananda, a visionary wellness-residential community in Phuket's beautiful north. Set across 237 acres of pristine tropical landscape, this select enclave offers just around 70 ultra-low-density private pool villas, each designed for sophistication, comfort and sustainable living.

Each villa blends elegant architecture, generous living spaces and thoughtful natural finishes — ideal for both families and discerning investors seeking more than just a residence. The community inclusion of a world-class wellness resort managed by Clinique La Prairie (opening 2026) means owners benefit from integrative health, nutrition and mindfulness services right on site.

Location & Lifestyle

Located in the serene Pru Jampa area of Thalang, just moments from Bang Tao and Layan beaches, Tri Vananda strikes the perfect balance of secluded calm and accessible resort-style amenities.

Here, you'll experience a truly multi-generational lifestyle: morning trails through natural wetlands, afternoons by your private pool or wellness centre, and evenings spent enjoying lakeside dining or mindful gatherings. Sustainability is built into the fabric of the development — with minimal car traffic, organic landscaping, and nature-preserving architecture.

Villa Options

Choose from thoughtfully sized 2–4 bedroom private pool villas, designed to meet your personal style or investment goals. Each home includes expansive living areas, luxury finishes and the option to customise to your taste.

With only a handful of residences available in such a rare setting, this is a premium opportunity for those who want both lifestyle and investment value.

Ownership & Payment Terms

International buyers can purchase with confidence. Backed by a respected development team (the owners of the renowned Trisara resort) and set within a landmark wellness community, these villas deliver long-term appeal and security.

Flexible terms and off-plan incentives may be available — now is the time to act.

Lifestyle Meets Investment

Tri Vananda invites you to invest with confidence in a property that gives you more than a home — it offers a lifetime of well-being, community and meaningful return. Whether you are looking for a premier residence, a family legacy property or an astute investment, this rare development ticks every box.
