Description

This villa is located in Laguna Phuket, a fully integrated resort and residential community along the island's stunning west coast and the development also overlooks the manicured fairways of Banyan Tree Golf Course. This appealing and affordable primary or secondary home is in a secure resort environment and inspired new addition to Phuket's residential community, boasting an unrivalled combination of Townhomes and Villas. Laguna is one of Phuket's most prestigious brands. Set over three levels this brand new villa comes with rooftop forth room option offering excellent value for money. With Laguna's first class facilities at your fingertips and with the beaches of Bang Tao and Surin close by, now is the time to purchase your very own Laguna property. Laguna Park Villas are the second most affordable types of private homes currently available on this world class resort. Developed by Laguna Phuket, the majority of projects previously released for purchase have been large private villas, with starting prices well outside the reach of most buyers. This new phase comprises townhouses and villas which are significantly more affordable. Images shown are of showroom.
